Our Lady of Sion College

2026 Annual Fees and Levies Amounts

The College Tuition Fee encompasses a range of services and programs that support the educational experience of all students. This includes, but is not limited to, technology support, all compulsory camps, retreats and excursions, wellbeing services, and learning and teaching programs.

The Capital Levy contributes to the College's ongoing commitment to maintaining and enhancing facilities that support both the academic and wellbeing needs of students.

The Parents' Association Levy supports the activities and initiatives facilitated by the Parents' Association, including community events such as the Significant Women's Breakfast and other functions that foster parent engagement within the College community.

Year Level	Tuition Fee (per student)	Capital Levy (per family)	Parents' Association Levy (per family)
7–9	$11,710	$2,220	$20
10-12	$12,090	$2,220	$20

Discounts

An early payment discount of $250 per student will apply if the full year fees are paid in advance by the nominated date.

A discount of $350 per student will apply where two or more siblings concurrently attend the College.

Other Charges

Instrumental Music Lessons – please contact Music Administration music@sion.catholic.edu.au or the College website for fee information.

Students enrolled in a VET or VCE-VM course will incur additional costs. An admission fee and subject material fee will apply, as confirmed by the Careers and Pathways Co-ordinator.

Other Compulsory resources that are not purchased via the College Book List will be charged separately.

Non-Compulsory Activities including Camps/Trips

The College offers a range of optional activities in which participation is voluntary. Families will be advised of any associated costs at the time these activities are offered.

Students from families who are receiving fee assistance or have outstanding fees will not be permitted to participate in any non-compulsory camps, trips, or similar activities.

General

For students commencing at the College after the beginning of a term, tuition fees will be calculated on a pro-rata basis.

A full-term written notice addressed to the Principal is required prior to the withdrawal of a student from the College. In the absence of such notice, a full-term tuition fee will be payable.

During Term 3, a Confirmation of Re-enrolment Fee of $500 per student is payable to secure your child's place at the College for the following year. This fee is non-refundable should your child not return to the College.

Payment Options

The College offers families the choice of monthly or quarterly instalment plans for the payment of fees. Payments are made via a nominated bank account or credit card and are automatically debited according to the selected instalment schedule.

If no selection is made by families, the monthly instalment plan will apply by default. A request to confirm your preferred payment option will be sent prior to the commencement of the school year.

Parents are reminded that all fees must be paid in accordance with the College's payment terms.
