Raise More. Stress Less. Laugh a Little.

Benefit Auctioneer Services with Leigh Brown

When your nonprofit hosts a fundraising event, the stakes are high. You are asking people who care about your mission to give generously, and that deserves professionalism, preparation, and heart.

Leigh Brown is a professional benefit auctioneer known for her calm confidence, strategic preparation, and just the right touch of humor. She helps nonprofits raise more money while creating an environment where donors feel comfortable, respected, and genuinely glad they attended.

A Professional Partner for Your Fundraising Event

Leigh does not show up cold or wing it. She prepares thoughtfully, honors your mission, and runs a smooth, well-paced event that keeps energy high without ever overshadowing your cause. Her style is warm, inclusive, and respectful. Never awkward, coercive, or performative.

When donors feel at ease, they listen.

When they listen, they give.
