Company Description

HSI (Hospital Systems, Inc) manufactures headwalls in the USA for the domestic and international markets since 1970. HSI has outfitted new hospitals, created teaching labs, updated surgery suites, designed and outfitted emergency rooms, operating rooms, intensive care units and many other medical areas for over 50 years. Our unique build-to-order approach has allowed us to work with our customers from concept to completion. We ensure the final product is installed with ease, meets clinicians needs, has the look and style envisioned for the space and will be easy to maintain for decades.

HSI is a Women-Owned business, Certified Green by the state of California, and currently has over 10,000 installations worldwide.
