The Victor Alexander Young Men's Scholarship Program

The Victor Alexander Young Men's Scholarship Program is a mentored training program for aspiring young male dancers. It offers boys ages 7–17 up to 75% tuition support and includes 10 months and up to 16 hours a week of professional training. This program develops well-rounded dance artists and mentors male dancers by providing the highest level of training and personal development to each student.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply, simply complete the scholarship application form and submit it with proof of income for your entire household. While financial need is not a determinant for this scholarship, we require a copy of your current 1040 for contribution and grant demographic requirements. Once documents are received, an interview will be scheduled with the School Director for placement into the program.

Required Documentation:

1. Copy of prior year's tax return. If you do not have a copy of your tax return, you may obtain one by contacting the Internal Revenue Service. For international applicants, please contact Austin Shirley at scholarships@ruthpage.org for acceptable documents.
2. Copy of at least two most recent pay stubs.
3. Copy of Social Security or Disability checks, or copy of bank statement showing amount of automatic monthly deposit.
4. Copy of unemployment check, child support, alimony payment, or copy of bank statement showing amount of automatic monthly deposit.
5. Copy of rent assistance, Medicaid/Medicare assistance, SNAP, or other forms of assistance.

PLEASE NOTE

- The scholarship covers up to 75% of tuition for applicants who commit to 2.5 hours or more of training in the Young Dancer's Training Program and agree to the attendance requirements.
- The program includes 10 months and up to 16 hours a week of professional training.
- The scholarship is valid for the entire program year. Families must re-apply at the end of the Spring Term.
- This scholarship does not apply to the Summer program.
- Scholarship requests are handled by the Enrollment and Operations Coordinator. Other people do not have access to your confidential information.

Please contact Austin Shirley at scholarships@ruthpage.org if you have any questions. All applications and personal documents are kept confidential.
