Small Group Questions (11/8/26)

What the Bible Says About Stewardship – Part 4: "One + God = VICTORY!"

Acts 3:1-10

1. The sermon emphasizes that "One plus God always equals VICTORY!" What do you think it means to partner with God?

Follow up: Share an example of a time when you saw God work through someone else?

2. The story of Robert illustrated how someone can overcome obstacles and still be used by God in meaningful ways. How does Robert's example challenge us to reconsider what we believe limits our usefulness to God?

3. Acts 3:1 tells us that Peter and John were on their way to the temple for their regular time of prayer. Their willingness to serve God was demonstrated through their everyday faithfulness. What are some everyday opportunities we might overlook because we are waiting for something bigger or more exciting?

4. Peter and John were on their way to pray when the lame man interrupted their plans. How do you typically respond when someone interrupts your schedule with an unexpected need?

Follow-up: How can we better prepare ourselves for "interruptions" that come when people have needs?

5. The sermon shared the story of Dan Reiland, who learned that the people he was walking past were actually the reason he was there. What are some practical ways we can become more people-focused in our daily lives?

6. The sermon challenges the idea that we often tell people we will pray for them when we have the ability to do something to help. How do we balance the importance of prayer with the responsibility to take action?

7. In Acts 3:6, Peter said, "I do not have silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you." Peter recognized that although he couldn't provide what the man initially expected, he could still offer something valuable. What resources has God entrusted to you besides money to help people in need?

8. When the crowd gathered, Peter made it clear that he and John were not responsible for the miracle through their own power or godliness (Acts 3:12). Why can it be tempting to accept recognition or take credit when God uses us to accomplish something meaningful?

Follow-up: What are some practical ways we can make sure our service points people toward God rather than ourselves?

9. The sermon concludes with the reminder to "Pass it on." Think about the people in your family, workplace, neighborhood, and church. What is one specific thing you can do this week to use what God has given you to bless that person and point them toward Jesus?

This week's challenge:

Look for someone who may have an unmet need. Love someone enough to allow your routine to be interrupted. Give something God has entrusted to you to bless someone else. Act instead of simply waiting for someone else to help. Praise God and give Him the glory for the opportunities He provides.
