

Animal Control

Season 5

Animal Control follows a group of misfit animal control workers wrangling not just wild creatures, but the wild chaos of their own lives. Led by cynical ex-cop Frank Shaw (Joel McHale), the team navigates bizarre animal encounters, workplace rivalries, and personal misadventures in their city's dysfunctional animal control department. With sharp wit, offbeat cases, and plenty of unexpected heart, Animal Control turns the everyday job of rescuing raccoons and chasing stray llamas into a hilarious exploration of human nature — both the tame and the untamable.
