When we first envisioned this restaurant, we didn't just see a place to eat—we saw a place to grow, a place to serve, and a place to make a lasting impact. At Sasquee, we believe in the power of authenticity. Whether it's the food we serve or the way we treat one another, we lead with heart and integrity.

Our Story

Growing up along the Salmon River, stories and good food were our culture. But one story always stood taller than the rest. Back in the day, my dad Mike, his friend Merrill, and my brother Jeff, worked the river run, hauling boats back to Salmon in a big rig. Late one night, high in the mountains above Stanley, Idaho, their headlights caught something the forest wasn't supposed to hold.

"About 60 yards out, something walked into the middle of the road and just stopped," my dad recalls. "He stood upright like a man, maybe ten feet tall with a massive barrel chest. He looked right at our lights, then vanished into the pines."

Merrill's only response? "Let's get out of here!"

That encounter sparked a lifelong fascination. While raising our 13 children, I dreamt of a playful dining experience where believers could share their sightings and skeptics could share a laugh. In 2023, that dream took shape as a creative way to fund our nonprofit humanitarian retreats. What started as a fun idea for themed brownies has evolved into the very restaurant you're sitting in today.

Established in August 2026 to honor my dad's birthday, Sasquee is more than just a restaurant. Our motto, 'Moving forward, one Bigfoot at a time,' reflects our commitment to community. We are proud to support nonprofit humanitarian work, both locally and globally. Thank you for joining us in strengthening communities, one story and one delicious meal at a time.

Our Promise to You

At Sasquee, we believe the best food starts with the best ingredients and a little bit of heart. Our dream for Sasquee was to create a place where friends and family can gather for incredible comfort food and friendly service at a fair price. We've paired a clean, relaxed forest vibe with the kind of hospitality that makes you feel right at home. It's simple: delicious food, a peaceful atmosphere, and the friendliest service you'll ever find. Every day in our kitchen, we prepare your meals fresh from scratch. We take the time to peel and grate real potatoes by hand for the freshest hashbrowns you've ever tasted. We even share our own family treasures with you, like our signature Cranberry Cornbread.

Our goal is simple: to prepare your meal exactly the way you like it. We are happy to offer substitutions and gluten-free options to meet your needs. Please be aware that Sasquee is not a gluten-free environment. Our menu items are handcrafted with our kitchen equipment and vendor-supplied ingredients may occur. For these reasons we can't assure any menu item will be entirely gluten free. When you're here, you're family—so grab an ice cream cone or experience the "Legendary" sizes and walk away with a smile.
