FROM OUR PASTOR'S HEART

Dear Faith Family,

This is the Sunday of Thanksgiving week, and I hope we will use this day to practice what we should be applying every moment of every day. Let us give thanks unto the Lord for His goodness toward us. Do you realize that our lives are filled with expressions of God's grace and mercy? Every aspect of creation looks to the Lord, waits upon Him, and is satisfied by His gracious hand.

Psalm 104:27-32 says, "These all wait for You, that You may give them their food in due season. What You give them they gather in; You open Your hand, they are filled with good. You hide Your face, they are troubled; You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; And You renew the face of the earth. May the glory of the Lord endure forever; May the Lord rejoice in His works. He looks on the earth, and it trembles; He touches the hills, and they smoke." Just prior to these verses, the psalmist looked across creation and noted how God's handiwork was on display all around him. In these verses, the author observed how everything in creation waits for the Lord to see it and provide for its needs.

When the Lord opens His hand to provide, creation rejoices. When the Lord hides His face and withholds His blessings, the created order experiences trouble. This portion of the song gives praise to God for two reasons. First, we are dependent upon Him. Second, He is dependable. If we are not careful, these two powerful truths can be easily forgotten. We lose sight of them. But, I want to encourage you today to take the time to think of how dependent we are on the Lord. We cannot do anything without Him. Without the Lord's provision, our hearts don't beat. We would not be able to see, and there would be no hope of an eternity of joy in heaven. We are dependent.

At the same time, we should praise God that He is absolutely dependable. We are never without what we need as long as Jesus reigns. He will never fail to do anything that He promises. The Lord will not let a single one of His words fall to the ground unfulfilled. I encourage you to rejoice, celebrate, bless the Lord, and give Him thanks. We are dependent on the true God who is perfectly dependable. Let this truth refresh your soul and stir your heart to rejoice. May His dependability give you strength for this journey of GROWING IN FAITH!

In Christ,

Pastor Lee

Connection Group Leaders Special Luncheon - Sunday, December 6th

Every leader of our connection classes, community groups, and discipleship groups is invited to attend this event from 12:15 to 1:30 PM in the Gym. Together, we will share and celebrate what the Lord does in and through our connection groups in 2026. Childcare will be available by RSVP only. Please contact our Discipleship office for more information.
