PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I'm always amazed at how Advent seems to sneak up on us every year. With the rush of activities throughout the fall, it seems like you blink once, and then it's Thanksgiving, and you blink again, and then Christmas is only four weeks away.

But as in every year, we start Advent with a sense of new hope and possibilities. God grants us a time of hope, peace, and grace, no matter what came before. The familiar sights and sounds and traditions raise our hearts to the way God's love is ever new. It's a time when we awaken to joy.

One of my favorite descriptions of Advent is that it is a time of "devout and expectant delight." Our devotion to God awakens our joy, and our joy increases our love for him. My prayer is that all the people of St. Thomas—along with our families and community—will feel that sense of delight this Advent.

As we enter this season of devout delight as a parish family, we'll be overjoyed by the special traditions of the season: the candles, the special music, the Montevallo Christmas Parade, and especially the Feasts of the Immaculate Conception and Our Lady of Guadalupe. Through our Lady's intercession, and the prayers of our patron St. Thomas, let's get ready to rejoice at coming celebration of our Savior's birth.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Siempre me sorprende cómo el Adviento nos llega cada año casi sin darnos cuenta. Con tantas actividades durante el otoño, parece que en un abrir y cerrar de ojos ya es el Día de Acción de Gracias, y en otro abrir y cerrar de ojos ya solo faltan cuatro semanas para la Navidad.

Pero, como todos los años, comenzamos el Adviento con una esperanza nueva y con nuevas posibilidades. Dios nos regala un tiempo de esperanza, de paz y de gracia, sin importar lo que haya pasado antes. Las imágenes, los sonidos y las tradiciones que tanto conocemos nos levantan el corazón y nos recuerdan que el amor de Dios es siempre nuevo. Es un tiempo en que despertamos a la alegría.

Una de las descripciones del Adviento que más me gustan es la que nos da la Iglesia: es un tiempo de «expectación piadosa y alegre», es decir, una espera llena de devoción y de alegría. Nuestra devoción a Dios despierta nuestra alegría, y nuestra alegría hace crecer nuestro amor por Él. Le pido a Dios que toda la gente de Santo Tomás, junto con nuestras familias y nuestra comunidad, sienta esa alegría en este Adviento.

Al entrar como familia parroquial en este tiempo de espera alegre y devota, nos llenarán de gozo las tradiciones propias de estos días: las velas, los cantos especiales, el Desfile Navideño de Montevallo y, de manera especial, las fiestas de la Inmaculada Concepción y de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Por la intercesión de nuestra Señora y por las oraciones de nuestro patrono, Santo Tomás, preparémonos para celebrar con alegría el nacimiento de nuestro Salvador.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
