NOTICE

AUSTRALIAN BORDER FORCE (ABF) CANNOT ENTER WITHOUT A WARRANT.

Section 251(6) of the Migration Act only authorises ABF officers to search a building where they have been issued with a warrant that remains in force. Section 487D of the Migration Act only authorises ABF officers to search a premises where they have a warrant or the consent of the occupier, and a reasonable suspicion of locating evidential material. Entry to private property without legal authority may amount to trespass.