1.3 Panels will give effect to this overriding objective when interpreting and applying this schedule.

2 Notice

2.1 Notice will be provided to the Respondent no fewer than ~~21~~28 days before the date on which their case is to be considered. This notice period may be reduced if the Respondent consents.

DRAFT

the amendment is such as to require that the amended Notice should be re-served on the Respondent, it will so direct and the hearing shall be postponed or adjourned accordingly.

3.4 The panel may admit and consider information where such information has not been disclosed in advance in accordance with the provisions set out above where either (i) the Respondent consents to this; or (ii) the panel is satisfied that the admission of the information is necessary to ensure the fairness of the proceedings and, where there is possible prejudice to the Respondent, that this is outweighed.

5.3 The panel may exclude from the whole or any part of a hearing, any person whose conduct, in the opinion of the panel, has disrupted (or is likely to disrupt) the hearing.

DRAFT

Should the panel proceed in this way, it may conduct proceedings as it sees fit.
