Tuition Assistance Program

THE RUTH PAGE SCHOOL OF DANCE is committed to creating world-class dancers and providing the most comprehensive training experience possible regardless of the ability to pay. The Ruth Page Tuition Assistance Program was created to encourage the participation of talented students typically underrepresented in dance education. This includes, but is not limited to, beginning and/or non-professional students.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply for assistance, simply complete the application form. Then provide the requested information regarding income and family size to the Ruth Page Center so that we may provide assistance in a fair and consistent manner.

Required Documentation:

1. Copy of prior year's tax return. If you do not have a copy of your tax return, you may obtain one by contacting the Internal Revenue Service. For international applicants, please contact Austin Shirley at scholarships@ruthpage.org for acceptable documents.
2. Copy of at least two most recent pay stubs.
3. Copy of Social Security or Disability checks, or copy of bank statement showing amount of automatic monthly deposit.
4. Copy of unemployment check, child support, alimony payment, or copy of bank statement showing amount of automatic monthly deposit.
5. Copy of rent assistance, Medicaid/Medicare assistance, SNAP, or other forms of assistance.

PLEASE NOTE

- Support from our Annual Giving Campaign reduces tuition and program fees; it does not eliminate them.
- All support will be granted for 10 months.
- Tuition and program fees are subject to change upon annual review.
- Scholarship participants are welcome to re-verify their income in the event of an annual rate increase.
- Support is granted following review of all documentation and approval by the Director of Operations.
- Ruth Page School of Dance reserves the right to request additional information when necessary.

Please contact Austin Shirley at scholarships@ruthpage.org if you have any questions about documentation. All subsidy applications and personal documents are kept confidential.
