Modern Slavery Policy

V1.1

At Vitrue Ltd, we are committed to upholding human rights and combating modern slavery and human trafficking in all its forms. We recognize the seriousness of these issues and understand our responsibility as a corporate entity to prevent and mitigate their occurrence. Our approach to tackling modern slavery and human trafficking involves the following key principles:

Zero Tolerance: We maintain a zero-tolerance policy towards modern slavery and human trafficking within our company and supply chains. We will not tolerate any form of forced labor, child labor, or exploitation.

Supply Chain Transparency: We conduct thorough due diligence to ensure transparency throughout our supply chains. We work closely with our suppliers, requiring them to comply with our stringent standards regarding labor practices and human rights. We seek to develop long-term relationships with suppliers who share our commitment to eradicating modern slavery.

Risk Assessment and Auditing: We regularly assess the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking within our operations and supply chains. This includes conducting audits and inspections to identify any potential issues and taking immediate action to address any violations or concerns.

Employee Education and Training: We provide comprehensive training to all our employees to raise awareness about modern slavery and human trafficking. This training emphasizes the identification of potential signs and the appropriate actions to take when encountering such situations.

Reporting Mechanisms: We have established effective reporting mechanisms to encourage employees, suppliers and other stakeholders to report any suspicion or concerns related to modern slavery or human trafficking. We guarantee that these reports will be treated confidentially and investigated promptly.

Collaboration and Advocacy: We actively engage with relevant stakeholders, industry associations and civil society organisations to share best practices, exchange knowledge and collaborate on initiatives aimed at eradicating modern slavery and human trafficking. By adhering to these principles, we demonstrate our commitment to comply with the Modern Slavery Act and to continuously improve our practices. We are dedicated to working towards a world where every individual is treated with dignity and respect, free from any form of exploitation.
