ANW Microgrant Application - Round 8

Arts North West's Annual Micro Grants provide grants of up to $1,000 to support independent professional practising artists, community groups, arts organisations and creative businesses across the New England North West. The program invests in small-scale creative projects that strengthen artistic practice, build professional skills, increase community participation and contribute to a vibrant regional arts sector. Funding can support activities such as professional development, artist fees, workshops, exhibitions, creative development, equipment and materials, marketing, mentoring and community arts initiatives.Projects must be delivered between 10 December 2026 and 10 December 2027.
