Continue

Christine feehan free books

In a world where supernatural beings roam free, various groups fight for power and justice. Immortal Carpathians must find their lifemate to avoid becoming the vampires they're sworn to destroy. Meanwhile, feline shifters clash over territory while trying to tame their wild sides. Trained assassins form Torpedo Ink, a motorcycle club that hunts down bad guys and seeks redemption. Magical women in Sea Haven band together to protect their town from evil forces. A wealthy Chicago family uses their shadow-riding abilities to mete out their own brand of justice. These groups battle against darkness, with each one fighting for survival, love, and acceptance. Darkness Falls: A Realm of Shadows and Desire A collection of novels by Christine Feehan delves into the realm of darkness and desire, exploring the world of supernatural creatures and human relationships. From the "Carpathian" series to the "GhostWalkers," each book weaves a tale of love, passion, and danger. For centuries, the Carpathians have battled against all odds to protect their kind. Now, a sinister plot threatens to destroy everything they've worked for. Despite his own family being targeted, Mikhail, the Carpathian king, remains hopeful. He gathers his people and forges a bond of strength, joining forces in a celebration that brings light amidst darkness. In the jungles of the Congo, GhostWalker Jack Norton is on a mission to rescue his brother. His path crosses with Briony, a beautiful rebel hiding secrets that could put her life at risk. As they navigate treacherous terrain, their lives become entwined in a dance of danger and deceit. Stefan Prakenskii, a lethal undercover agent, is sent to the coastal town of Sea Haven to uncover the truth about an elusive beauty with ties to his past. His mission becomes complicated as he finds himself drawn to her mysterious allure and the seductive master criminal who seeks to possess her. In a world where half-human, half-leopard creatures roam free, Fever brings together two stories from Christine Feehan's Awakening series. This collection of sensual tales takes readers on a wild ride through the lush rainforest of Borneo, where passion and desire reign supreme. Born into a world of twisted monsters, Jake Bannaconni is a ruthless, merciless man who controls his domain with an iron hand. His hidden legacy as a shapeshifter makes him a force to be reckoned with in the corporate world. When his world collides with that of Emma Reynolds, his plans for total domination may come crashing down. As brutal as the undead he hunts, Zacarias De La Cruz is a master executioner who has spent centuries waging war against evil. His unyielding spirit and merciless nature make him an implacable dark predator. In this gripping tale, Feehan kicks off episode five of her popular Drake Sisters series. With action-packed scenes, gunplay, danger lurking around every corner, and good guys battling bad ones, this installment is sure to captivate fans of the paranormal genre. Women and magic are a potent combination, with tantalizing hints of steamy romance and a suspenseful mystery surrounding a supermodel slasher at New York's Fashion Week. The Oceans Of Fire series follows Abigail Drake as she flees from murder scenes into the arms of Interpol agent Alexsandr Volstov, who once broke her heart but isn't about to let her slip away again. In Magic In The Wind, Damon Wilder seeks refuge in Sea Haven, where he's drawn to Sarah and becomes embroiled in a mystery surrounding Elle Drake's disappearance. Hidden Currents tells the story of Sheriff Jackson Deveau's long-standing love for Elle as they try to uncover the truth behind her vanishing act. Twilight Before Christmas is set around the holiday season in Sea Haven, where a family with magical abilities must navigate gossip and town events. The Dangerous Tides series follows Libby Drake as she becomes entangled with biochemist Tyson Derrick while being pursued by a secret enemy. Dark Melody revolves around lead guitarist Dayan's haunting performances, which beckon his lifemate Corinne Wentworth to complete him and bring him emotions that have faded from his existence. Book summaries for Dark Magic Series, Dark Guardian Series, and Dark Gold Series. Each series contains three books with the following characteristics: - The stories are part of the Carpathian legend, where powerful males with unique magic exist. - Romance is a central theme as these immortal beings search for love and companionship. - Action and suspense are woven throughout each tale as the characters navigate their destinies and confront various threats. - These paranormal romances explore complex relationships and character development within the Carpathian world. The series ratings are: - Dark Magic Series: 4.03/5 - Dark Guardian Series: 4.06/5 - Dark Gold Series: 4.05/5