Enclosure 10

The Attachment to the Notification of the National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission Re: “Prohibition of Actions Which are Considered as Being Dominated by Foreigner” B.E. 2555 and Copy of Thaicom Public Company Limited’s Announcement Re: “Prohibition of Actions Which are Considered as Being Dominated by Foreigner” B.E. 2556

Enclosure 10 part 1

[Some Quote]

Notification of the National Broadcasting

and Telecommunications Commission

Re: "Prohibition of Actions Which Are Considered as Being Dominated by Foreigner"

B.E. 2555

Published in the Government Gazette on 23 July 2012 Book 129 Special Section 117 D

"Prohibition" means the prohibition of actions that are considered as being dominated by Foreigners according to the guidelines in the attachment to this Notification.

"Domination" means having control or influence over, whether directly or indirectly, by a Foreigner to regulate the policy, management, operation, appointment of directors or top executives which may affect the telecommunication business operation of a license applicant or a licensee by holding the shares with half or more than half of all voting rights or controlling majority votes in Shareholder Meeting or being able to appoint and remove a half or more than half of the board of directors.

Article 7 Within 30 days from the date of the annual general shareholder meeting, a licensee shall determine and review the Prohibition and submit to the NBTC with a certification signed by the authorized person of the juristic person stating that it will not violate the Prohibition in accordance with the criteria and conditions set forth in this Notification.

The Prohibition according to paragraph 1 shall be approved by the general shareholder meeting of the licensee.

[Attachment to the notification]

The list of prohibitions on the acts which are considered as being dominated by foreigner

---

(1) Domination through having a Foreigner or agent or nominee holding shares, whether directly or indirectly, with an intention to evade this Notification.

(2) Domination through the holding of shares by a Foreigner himself or his agent or nominee and the said shares contain preference in voting right in shareholders' meeting more than actual proportion of shares it holds or the shares have preference over those held by Thai shareholders.

(3) Domination through having a Foreigner who has authority, control, or influence, whether directly or indirectly, to regulate the policy, the management, operation, and appointment of directors or top executives.

Top executive means Chairman of the Board of Directors, managing director, manager, director, Chief Finance Officer, head of the purchasing function, or any other person who has authority or influence on the management or operation of telecommunication of the license applicant or licensee.

(4) Domination through having a juristic relationship with the source of fund or loan from a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person such as loan guarantee, giving a loan with a lower interest rate than the market, business risk insurance, or granting credit in a discriminatory manner.

(5) Domination through making a contract relating to intellectual property or franchising or giving an exclusive right to a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person and such contract results in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.

(6) Domination through making purchasing contracts or management service contracts with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person or their employee or personnel and the contracts result in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.

(7) Domination through jointly operating the business with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person by sharing the operating costs resulting in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.

(8) Domination through having a transfer pricing or collusive pricing transaction with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person.

- Translation -

Announcement

Thaicom Public Company Limited

Re: "Prohibition of Actions Which are Considered as Being Dominated by Foreigners"

B.E. 2556

The National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission ("NBTC") has enacted the Notification Re: Prohibition of Actions Which Are Considered as Being Dominated by Foreigner B.E. 2555 (the "Notification"). The Notification stipulates that a type 2 telecom licensee with its own network and a type 3 telecom licensee shall specify its prohibited foreign dominant actions with approval from its general shareholders' meeting. With the approval from the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of the year 2013, held on 28 March 2013, Thaicom Public Company Limited, to ascertain that there will be no act of dominance by a foreigner, set the following prohibitions:

1. Do not dominate by having a Foreigner or agent or nominee holding shares, whether direct or indirect with an intention to evade the Notification.
2. Do not dominate by holding of shares by a Foreigner himself or his agent or nominee and the said shares contain preference in voting right in shareholders' meeting more than actual proportion of shares it holds or the shares have preference over those held by Thai shareholders.
3. Do not dominate by having a Foreigner who has authority, control, or influence, whether directly or indirectly, to regulate the policy, management, operation, and appointment of directors or top Executives of the Company. Top Executive means Chairman of the Board of Directors, managing director, manager, director, Chief Finance Officer, head of the purchasing function, or any other person who has authority or influence on the management or operation of telecommunication of the Company.
4. Do not dominate by having a juristic relationship with the source of funds or loan from a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person such as a loan guarantee, giving a loan with a lower interest rate than the market, business risk insurance, or granting credit in a discriminatory manner.
5. Do not dominate by making a contract relating to intellectual property or franchising or giving an exclusive right to a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person and such contract results in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.

6. Do not dominate by making purchasing contracts or management service contracts with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person or their employee or personnel and the contracts result in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.
7. Do not dominate by jointly operating the business with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person by sharing the operating costs resulting in a transferring of expenses and benefits to a Foreigner.
8. Do not dominate by having a transfer pricing or collusive pricing transaction with a Foreigner or the Foreigner's affiliate juristic person.

This announcement is effective from 28 March 2013.

****