MIAMI BEACH 2026

ART · MIAMI BEACH

Art Basel Miami 2026

With OpenSea and 100 Collectors.
1 and 2 December 2026.

AN INVITATION

Two days, ahead of the public.

Art Basel opens its doors in Miami Beach on 4 December. We arrive earlier, with a small circle of members and guests.

A dinner at The Setai with OpenSea and 100 Collectors, where the artist 0xfff turns code into something you can watch take shape. The next afternoon, a private walk through Zero 10, the fair's platform for art of the digital era.

TUESDAY · 1 DECEMBER

Dinner at The Setai

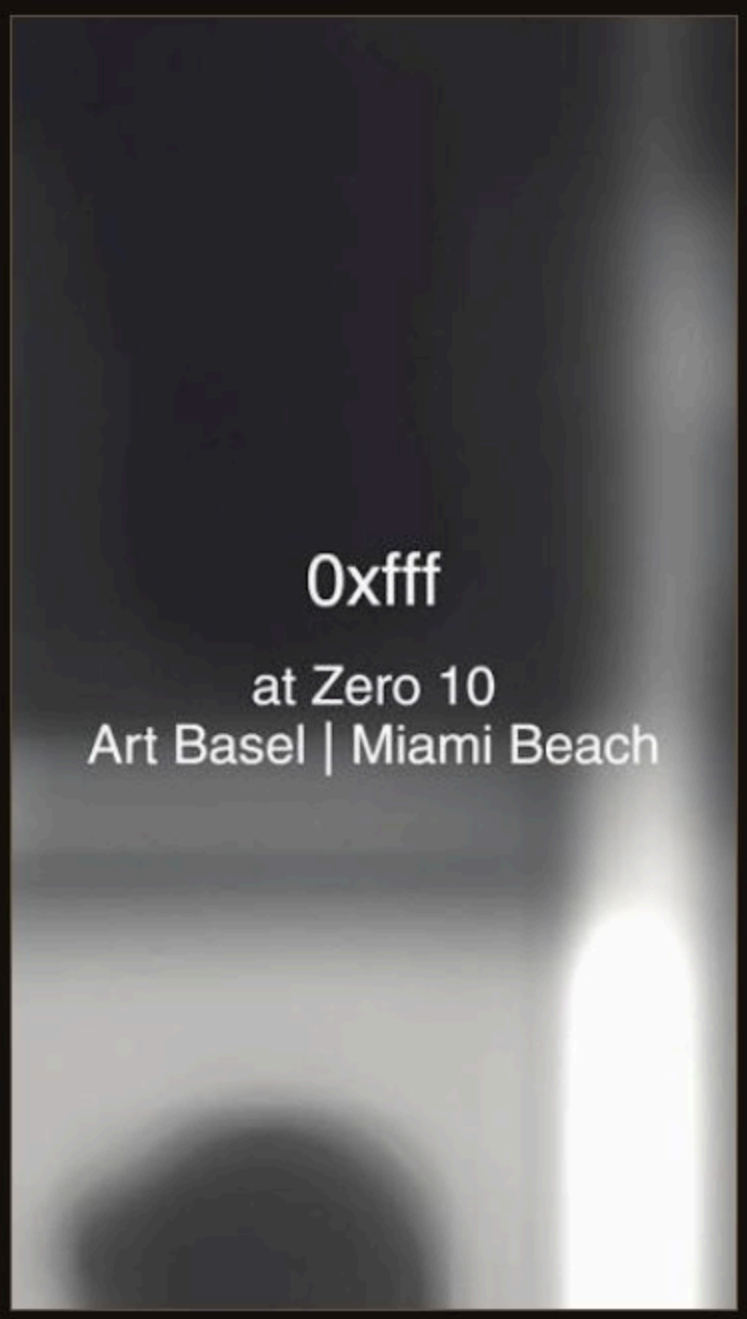
Hosted by Aria One and OpenSea, with 100 Collectors. One table on Collins Avenue for collectors, artists and the people building the platforms where digital art now lives.

HOUR	19:30
PLACE	The Setai, 2001 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach



THE ARTIST AT THE TABLE

0xfff, a sculptor of code

0xfff treats the live execution of code as a sculptural material. The work is not an image on a screen. It is a system that comes alive when someone acts on it.

The Transaction Sculptures are circuits written on Ethereum. Send a transaction and it travels through the piece, leaving a line behind it. Each activation draws something new.

Based in Switzerland. Shown at Rhizome World in New York, and at Art Basel Miami Beach this year with Office Impart at Zero 10.

DURING DINNER · IN DEVELOPMENT

A sculpture the table completes

Between courses, 0xfff opens a Transaction Sculpture to the room. Guests take part, the artist explains what happens inside the code, and the piece draws in front of everyone.

01 The artist shows how the circuit is built, in plain words.

02 Guests trigger it, one by one, from their own phone or with the artist.

03 Each activation is drawn live, then kept as a numbered, signed print to take home.

ARIA ONE · ART BASEL PARIS, OCTOBER 2026

WEDNESDAY · 2 DECEMBER

A private tour of Zero 10

Art Basel's platform for art of the digital era returns for its second Miami edition, Generation, its largest yet. A small group, guided through the sector, with a stop at 0xfff's new work.

HOUR	14:00
PLACE	Miami Beach Convention Center

OUR GUESTS AT THE TABLE

100 Collectors

A private, invitation-only club for contemporary and digital art collectors, founded by Pauline Foessel. Its members meet where the work is: on fair floors, in studios, at the artist's side.

Guided walks through Zero 10 in Basel and Hong Kong. Meet-the-artist tours. Collectors' dinners in Dubai and Lisbon. The club does not commission or curate. It helps collectors understand what they are looking at.

"Collectors acquire; curators contextualize."
