Matthew 25:14-30

A life belonging to Christ allows for the faithful stewardship of His gifts and produces a meaningful life

- I. The _____ we _____ (vs. 14-15)
- II. The _____ we can _____ (vs. 16-18)
- III. The _____ we _____ (vs. 19-27)
- IV. The _____ we can _____ (vs. 28-30)

“As already mentioned, this slave does not represent an atheist or even an agnostic, because he recognized the master as his legitimate owner and no doubt made a pretense of honoring the master while he was away. He did not misuse his talent on immoral and selfish pursuits like the prodigal son or embezzle it like the unmerciful servant of Matthew 18. He simply disregarded the stewardship he had been given. In much the same way, unbelieving church members live in the environment of God’s redeemed community and enjoy exposure to the teaching of His word and the fellowship of His people. But in spite of their spiritual privilege, they make no positive response to the gospel and therefore can render no fruitful service.”

-John Macarthur
