BIOGRAPHY

Having worked on every major lawsuit concerning ICT (Information and Communications Technology) patents in Brazil, Rodolfo Barreto has gained one-of-a-kind expertise in high-stakes patent litigation and cross-border disputes. He is also prominent in legal and administrative matters involving antitrust and Standard-Essential Patents (SEPs). Mr. Barreto is the go-to litigator when key intellectual property assets are involved.

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

- Represented a foreign company in a dispute with the leading consumer electronics manufacturer that resulted in a global patent licensing agreement in less than a month after the case in Brazil was filed;
- Represented a foreign company in a case that resulted in the first ever injunction granted in Brazil for a video-coding patent;
- Represented a foreign company in the first ever patent assertion case against streaming services in Brazil;
- Represented several pharmaceutical companies in a novel proceeding that positively impacted the validity of dozen Brazilian patents held by clients;
- Asserted standard-essential and implementation patents in the first ever multi-front patent enforcement case in Brazil, which resulted in seizure of infringing goods at the borders;
- Developed from scratch a strategy to preemptively defend patents against infringement claims in a leading case;
- Developed from scratch a strategy to expedite the prosecution of patents pending at the patent office that resulted in a permanent injunction issued in record time after filing a writ of mandamus;
- Acted as a legal consultant of the Brazilian Confederation of Industry on the preparation of the “5G and SEPs: The role of intellectual property on the development of digitalization” guide;
- Represents a pharma company on a lawsuit seeking to revert the highest antitrust fine ever applied in Brazil for unilateral practices.
