BIOGRAPHY

Lucas Cheng is an attorney at law at Licks Attorneys' São Paulo office, where his practice focuses on patents and other intellectual property disputes. He assists domestic and foreign clients in enforcing and defending patents, trademarks, and trade secrets, and in resolving complex disputes related to innovative products, digital platforms, and regulated markets.

Before joining Licks Attorneys, Mr. Cheng developed his career in civil litigation in São Paulo, representing companies and individuals in contractual and consumer disputes before state courts. He has experience managing cases through all stages of the dispute-resolution cycle, consistently focusing on achieving practical outcomes for his clients.
