

Field Assistant and/or Summer Student

Primary Location of work: Fort St. John, BC & Surrounding Area

Position(s): Field Assistant and/or Summer Student

Prospect is looking for employees and contractors to join our team to support our ongoing and upcoming projects. This position is field based and may be casual but could be permanent for the right candidate. If you possess a combination of any or all of these skills, and are looking for an exciting change, contact us today. Email resume to levans@prospectenv.ca or visit our office at 10514 87 Ave. Fort St. John, BC.

The following are some of the responsibilities for the role of Field Assistant and/or Summer Student:

- Collect samples under guidance of environmental professionals
- Collect data under guidance of environmental professionals
- Support for environmental assessments for a variety of clients and industries

A successful candidate will possess a combination of the following skills and qualifications:

- Work well with others
- Follow instructions and take direction from others
- Quick learner
- Comfortable with field work including longer days, inclement weather, etc.
- Familiarity with oil and gas activities an asset
- Previous environmental field experience or related field experience is an asset

Safety Tickets

- H2S
- First Aid
- Common Safety Orientation
- Driver's License and clean abstract
- Pre-employment D&A test required

References are required.

Prospect offers fair compensation package of competitive wages which will vary based on qualifications and experience.

Thank you and potential candidates will be contacted for interviews.