

THE SOMERS RECAP

THIS WEEK IN SOMERS

AROUND TOWN

Our very own Judge McDermott participated in the Somers Fire Department's CPR and AED certification class last Sunday. Thank you to the Somers Fire Department for organizing this important training and helping equip residents with life-saving skills. Be on the lookout for the next class, "Stop the Bleed," on April 14, 2026, from 6:00–9:00 PM.

TOWN UPDATES

- This week, I met with the Council of Condos at Heritage Hills to provide an update on what's happening across Somers and to hear directly from residents.
- Planning is being finalized for our Independence Day Celebration as we prepare to mark our nation's 250th anniversary. Last night, representatives from Fire, Police, Parks & Recreation, the Lions Club, and the Chamber of Commerce met to coordinate logistics and finalize plans. The celebration will take place on July 1st at Reis Park, and we're looking forward to a great night of community, celebration, and fireworks.

PROJECTS & PROGRESS

The highly anticipated State Police Barracks on Route 100 continues to move forward. We've received comments from the Department of Health, and our engineering team is actively working through them to advance the project.

A NOTE FROM THE SUPERVISOR

— Rob Scorrano
Supervisor,
Town of Somers

Tomorrow, I will be at the Somers Library from 1:00–3:00 PM, and all are welcome to stop by and discuss what's happening across our town. One of the best things about living in Somers is having residents who are engaged and genuinely interested in staying informed.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Some people want it to happen, some wish it would happen, others make it happen."

— Michael Jordan
