A Community Conversation on Domestic Violence and Teen Relationships

Wednesday,
October 28, 2026
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

North Salem Courthouse
66 June Road
North Salem, NY 10560

Open to the public
Residents of all five supporting towns
are welcome.

Join us for a meaningful community conversation bringing together survivors' advocates, prosecutors, educators, local leaders, and neighbors.

Westchester County District Attorney's Office Check Presentation

Recognizing the $5,661 raised by courthouse staff through their Domestic Violence Awareness Month bake sale, with District Attorney Susan Cacace attending.

County Legislator Erika Pierce Check Presentation

Recognizing her continued support of New Dawn and the survivors we serve.

Community Panel Discussion

A conversation on domestic violence, teen relationships, the impact of abuse on children and families, and the importance of community support.

PANEL TOPICS MAY INCLUDE:

- What survivors face and why leaving can be so complicated
- The justice system and the challenges of building a case
- Evidence and documentation – what helps a case move forward
- The impact of domestic violence on children and families
- Recognizing warning signs of unhealthy teen relationships
- Where to turn for support and available community resources

We warmly welcome parents, PTO leaders, school superintendents, educators, law enforcement, and residents of North Salem, Lewisboro, Pound Ridge, Bedford, and Somers. Together, we can strengthen relationships and ensure that survivors know they are not alone.
