From Pastor Matyas

This is a nonpartisan newsletter.

A peripheral story that you may or may not be aware of is one of educational revisions to the social studies curriculum of the State of Michigan public school system. As the news story runs, the four Republicans are in favor of the changes, whilst the four Democrats are dead-set against it. According to Bridge Magazine, the changes include a downplay of: core democratic values, the historical value of the NAACP, Roe v. Wade, the Ku Klux Klan, climate change, and the like. Even the title of the article I read is "History Gets a Conservative Twist in Michigan Social Studies Standards."

I'll admit, I scratched my head. Why would core democratic values be downplayed by Conservatives? That seems contrary to everything I know about American political partisanship. And the fact that all four Democrats on the State B of E are opposed to it tells me there's more to the story than meets the eye.

So I went to the source. You can too: https://www.michigan.gov/documents/mde/SS_May_2018_Cut_Cap_Final_622356_7.pdf

Yes, just what I thought. Wherever the 142-page draft for Michigan K-12 Standards in Social Studies mentions the phrase "core democratic values", the draft substitutes "democratic" for "republic." So the opposers of the draft, the news outlet, the Democrats opposed to the rephrasing, are trying to make us believe that the changes downplay core democratic values, when in reality the changes simply conform the nomenclature to reflect reality: the United States of America is a republic, not a democracy. (For example, page 11, C2 is changed from "Understand values and principles of American constitutional democracy," to "Understand the core values and principles of our unique form of government, called a constitutional republic.")

They wish to make the Standards factually correct. How terribly controversial.

I next did a quick search for "NAACP," and found that of the three references, two were taken out. The first was in a parenthetical list of examples that looks like this: (e.g. NAACP, etc...). Lists like these were removed from the entirety of the document, offering educators the opportunity to fulfill the standards in their own unique ways. The second was in the Appendix, the whole of which was removed.

Egads. Call Al Sharpton.

I did the same search for Ku Klux Klan, Roe v. Wade, and climate change. The same situation presents itself. Every time a controversial issue is "removed" or "downplayed" by the standards, it is a part of exempli gratia, meaning "for example." Other "for examples" include League of Nations, Versailles Treaty, rationing, liberation of concentration camps, President Reagan, religious rights, and Cleveland.

From Pastor Matyas

Man, those Conservatives. They're so concerned with suppressing the education of Michigan children and pushing their own conservative agenda that they refuse to talk about Ronald Reagan and religious rights.wait, what?

Here's my point: the changes proposed are conservative insofar as they seek to shrink the bloated verbiage and inaccurate language of the current standards, which were last set in 2007. That's it. It's pretty boring.

Over the past few years, "Partisanship!" has been screamed at the end of every pointed finger, and the slightest disagreement in politics is used as a bitter Rorschach test for the so-called "sad state of the state," and how no one gets along anymore. It is my personal opinion that "wolf" has been cried so much, and conflict invented where conflict doesn't actually exist, that normal people are led to believe there is division when there isn't—or least more than there actually is.

Aside from suggesting you should ignore the stories about the Social Studies Standards from Lansing, I write this to challenge your own thinking about our own church and any enmity that may or may not exist. See, I happen to observe a St. Paul that is quite healthy and agreeable, a congregation that is concerned with civility and faithfulness more than division and arguments. I observe an extremely healthy congregation with loving members who feel blessed to be a part of this community.

Oh, I also see a school that isn't required to follow 147 pages of politicized social studies standards. God bless the First Amendment. Happy Independence Day.

Lutheran Education Advancement Plan

Advancing Lutheran Education for Future Generations Across the Great Lakes Bay Region

LEAP Alliance Aims for Excellence

All praise to God for the fact that the schools of our "LEAP Alliance" have been and continue to be distinctively Christ-centered! What a blessing! Might it also be said of our Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod schools of the Great Lakes Bay Region (our "LEAP schools") that they are measurably excellent in many significant respects? Read on, please.

For several decades now, there has been in place a school excellence goal-setting measurement stick, nationally, for our LCMS Lutheran schools. That tool, now very well-developed and highly acclaimed, is known as "National Lutheran School Accreditation." This voluntary, rigorous, very thorough and well-developed program provides means by which those who own/operate/lead Lutheran schools may aim for high levels of excellence within their schools. Through the process, a school which becomes accredited will invariably

- improve
- be measured against high national standards for Lutheran schools
- be evaluated against its own unique purposes
- receive recognition for successful completion of the process.

Note the following: Among the 793 Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod elementary schools nationally, 501 of these schools (63%) are accredited through "National Lutheran School Accreditation." And among the 86 Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod high schools nationally, 61 of these schools are accredited through "NLSA."

Now get this: Among the 18 Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod elementary schools of "LEAP" here in the Great Lakes Bay Region of Michigan, all 18 (100%) have worked for hard and have earned National Lutheran Schools Accreditation! And the one LCMS high school in the GLBR of Michigan (Valley Lutheran High School) has also worked hard and has earned accreditation through NLSA!

Vacation Bible School

VBS is almost here! Students going into Preschool through 6th grade are invited to join the "Shipwrecked" crew. The evening sessions will be Sunday-Thursday, July 8-12 from 5:30-8:15 p.m., with a light supper at 5 p.m. Morning sessions will be Monday-Friday, July 9-13 from 9:15 a.m.-noon, with a light breakfast at 8:45 a.m. to start the day! As always, we'll need lots of loving and busy volunteers and plenty of donations. You can register participants and volunteers with the forms in the entryway of church or by stopping by or calling the church office. Watch for the Donation Board at church - we need all the help we can get!

LWML Friendship Circle

LWML Friendship Circle ladies met in May, our last meeting until September. Deaconess Christel Neuendorf was our guest speaker, but additionally, she brought her friend Yanela who is from the Dominican Republic! Christel and Yanela told about how they met, their nurtured friendship through God's will and their souls-winning work in the Lutheran Church. Christel and Yanela prepared fried plantains for a Dominican Republic special treat. We are all experts now, at frying, seasoning and tasting. But I don't think you'll find them offered at the Ladies Aid Bake Sale...just yet.

A group of St Paul ladies met recently with Valerie Matyas to prepare strips of cloth to be used for a devotion presentation at a Pastor's Conference. Gathering to help with this and other "busy hands" projects always makes for an enjoyable and rewarding time.

The LWML Giving Tree has returned to the narthex! We are asking for help in gathering items for Michigan missions. Choose a tag, or two, purchase the items listed on the tag, then bring your donation back to the box under the Giving Tree. It's that easy! All donations will support these specifically chosen Michigan missions: Detroit: Camp Restore, Flint: Franklin Ave Mission, Pontiac: St Paul Community Mission, Port Huron: Blue Water Pregnancy Services and Kids In Distress, St Louis (MO) and Fort Wayne Seminaries. The Giving Tree will be available the month of June, and donations will be taken to the July LWML MI District Convention. Thank you for your blessing!

As some of us prepare for the MI District LWML Convention in July (19th – 22nd, Blue Water Convention Center, Port Huron), we are thrilled to learn the Grants approved at the 2016 Convention are nearing completion! All satisfied by the collection of MITES, yes, those mighty, little mites do amount to something BIG!

This is the LWML Mission Statement:

The mission of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League is to assist each woman of The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod in affirming her relationship with the Triune God so that she is enabled to use her gifts in ministry to the people of the world.

As St. Paul Church is affiliated with the LWML, each woman belonging to St. Paul can participate in LWML activities, outings, conventions – to discover and use her gifts (talents, interests, knowledge) in many ways in ministry to the people of the world. What exciting and readily available opportunities for your spiritual growth and good times! Read all about MI LWML at www.lwmlmichigan.org

The Dreaded Name

BOKO HARAM. This terrorizing name has been in the news for a few years with an evil reputation that frightens many Nigerians and causes Christians around the world to be in prayer for our brothers and sisters facing Boko Haram's terror.

Shocking statistics tell a very sad tale of almost 55,000 widows and more than 52,000 orphans because of Boko Haram's efforts to create a purely Islamic territory in northern Nigeria. Many of these broken people are Christian. Almost 50% of all Nigerians are Christian, yet in northern reaches of the nation only 4% are Christian which makes those believers targets of terrorists. It is becoming apparent that of those targets, many, if not most are young girls.

These girls are often raped repeatedly, forced to marry members of Boko Haram. Others are forced to become Islam and used as slaves while some become terrorist bombers.

Although attacks from Boko

Haram have decreased in numbers, their use of young children as suicide bombers has increased. Within a 2017 eight month period 84 children were used in this manner. Of those 56 were reportedly girls, many under the age of 15.

While we cherish our children, terrorists do not. They are used and abused indiscriminately. This is so difficult to imagine, much less understand.

PRAY FOR THE PERSECUTED

Pray that those enduring such awful afflictions will remain faithful throughout these terrible times. In the 2018 June issue of "Voice of the Martyrs" they ask that we pray specifically for 5 points needing our attention.

1. "Pray for Christians in northern

Nigeria who boldly stand for Christ as Boko Haram seeks to destroy the church.

2. Pray that the families of those killed for their faith will experience God's healing presence as they continue to be Christ's ambassadors in the hostile region.

3. Pray that Christians will exemplify Christ's love so powerfully that Boko Haram militants will turn to Jesus for salvation.

4. Pray that front-line evangelists will be encouraged and strengthened in the Lord as they proclaim Christ in difficult and dangerous places.

5. Pray for the perseverance of Christians who face continual threats of violence."

And 6. Pray that we may be worthy of the name of Christian as we live our daily lives for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

The above information was excerpted from Voice of The Martyrs newsletter, "Nigeria. Great Loss, Great Joy," June 2018.
