

Contact

P 808.544.8347

F 808.544.8399

E tkim@wik.com

Practice Areas

- Creditor's Rights

Education

- University of Hawaii at Mānoa, William S. Richardson School of Law, J.D. (2025)
- University of Hawaii at Mānoa, B.A. (2021)

Tammie Kim

Associate

Tammy Kim is an associate in the firm's Creditor's Rights section.

Born and raised on O'ahu, Tammy is a graduate of Punahou School, where she served as captain of the high school mock trial team and first developed her interest in the law. She later interned for the Honorable Edward H. Kubo, Jr. in the Hawai'i State Circuit Court.

Tammy earned both her Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. As an undergraduate, she served as president of the Mānoa Pre-Law Association and as a senate member of the Mānoa Scholars Club. In her final semester, she interned in the Office of former Governor David Ige.

Before attending law school, Tammy worked at the Hawai'i State Legislature as a committee clerk and later as office manager for the Office of the House Majority Leader. She was also selected as Hawai'i's delegate to the inaugural Western Governors' Leadership Institute in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

During law school, Tammy continued her work with the State Legislature, externed with the Office of the Federal Public Defender for the District of Hawai'i, interned for the Honorable James S. Kawashima in the Hawai'i State Circuit Court, and was a member of the National Trial Team, competing in the National Trial Competition.

Prior to joining Watanabe Ing, Tammy practiced at a Honolulu law firm focusing on condominium and community association law.