About Rosebud Theatre & School of the Arts:

The purpose of Rosebud Theatre & School of the Arts to enrich lives by offering grace and understanding through the art of storytelling, the practice of mentorship, and the gift of hospitality.

We believe that every person is created in the image of God and that all of humanity reflects different facets of God's character. We believe that all fall short of reflecting God's true spirit, but we also believe in the promise of redemption for all.

Within this context, Rosebud strives to honour and respect the diverse cultures, languages, abilities, and perspectives that each staff member brings to the organization.

We are dedicated to creating an inclusive environment that welcomes the humanity of our students, staff, contract instructors, guest artists, board members, donors, and patrons. We are committed to providing a supportive work and educational environment where the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion are trained, fostered, and intentionally practiced. Through conscious reflection, and deliberate action and discussion at all levels, we aim to create a culture of care and safety where diversity can flourish.

All personnel policies related to employment – including hiring, compensation, promotion, benefits, job assignments, transfers, lay-offs, return from lay-offs, company sponsored programs or events, etc. – will be implemented without discrimination toward race, colour, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, family status, age, language, or national origin.

We are committed to recruiting and retaining a group of diverse, qualified staff members who advance Rosebud's mission in their respective vocations. Through a fair and equitable hiring process, the qualifications and values of each candidate are the primary criteria upon which hiring and promotion decisions are made.

Application: Apply to Sean Derrick (seand@rosebudtheatre.com) with resume and cover letter stating why you're a good fit!
