

My One-Page Profile

A person-centred summary, co-written by me and the people who know me best.

My name:

My class and year group:

Written on:

Review by:

*A recent photo
of me smiling*

■ What people appreciate about me

My strengths, talents and the things people like about me. Start the page on a positive note.

■ What is important to me

My interests, routines, friendships and the things that keep me settled and ready to learn.

■ How best to support me

Precise steps any adult can follow. Swap vague lines for clear actions, e.g. "Give me a 2-minute warning before the bell rings."

Co-write this page with the learner and their family. Review it at least termly and after any transition. structural-learning.com