

Weekly Reading Record

A simple log of reading at home and in school. The aim is not neat handwriting from adults. The aim is to notice what the learner needs next.

Name:

Class:

Week beginning:

Reading log

Date	Book title	Pages	Adult comment (one thing you noticed)

Parent and carer prompts

One short note is enough. You could mention:

- ☐ What went well
- ☐ Where your child paused or slowed down
- ☐ A word that was tricky
- ☐ Something you talked about together
- ☐ Whether the book felt too easy, just right or too hard

Weekly Review

For staff use. A quick scan for patterns, not a marking task.

Fluency notes

- ☐ Reads with expression
- ☐ Self-corrects when meaning breaks down
- ☐ Reads at a comfortable pace
- ☐ Recognises common words automatically

Teacher review

Patterns noticed this week (book choice, confidence, vocabulary, comprehension, frequency of reading at home):

Notes

Next step

One small, specific action for the coming week. Examples: re-read a favourite page for fluency, pre-teach two words before the next book, move up or down a book band, pair with a reading buddy.

Next step for this learner