The movement to end human trafficking and sexual exploitation

The Survivors' Justice Agenda: Turning Outrage Into Action

PASS THE DEFIANCE ACT (S.1837/H.R.3562):

Establish a federal civil remedy for victims of nonconsensual sexually explicit deepfakes, empowering survivors to seek justice and hold perpetrators accountable.

PASS TREY'S LAW (S.3966/H.R.8571):

Protect survivors of child sexual abuse from nondisclosure agreements that silence them and shield perpetrators from accountability.

PASS VIRGINIA'S LAW (S.3815/H.R.7467):

Expand survivors' access to civil justice by removing legal time barriers that prevent victims of sexual abuse and trafficking from holding perpetrators accountable.

FUND ENFORCEMENT, SURVIVOR SUPPORT, AND PASS THE TRAFFICKING VICTIMS PREVENTION AND PROTECTION REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2025 (H.R. 1144):

Restore and allocate critical federal funding to strengthen investigations, prosecute perpetrators, and ensure survivors have access to essential services and support. Pass HR 1144 to reauthorize and strengthen anti-human trafficking programs through FY2029.

PASS THE SEX TRAFFICKING DEMAND REDUCTION ACT (H.R.9043):

Combat sex trafficking by addressing the demand that fuels sexual exploitation and strengthen accountability for sex buyers worldwide.

PASS THE NO CAMPAIGN FUNDED COVER-UPS ACT (H.R.9961):

Prohibit national political candidates from using campaign contributions or legal expense funds to cover costs associated with sexual assault, abuse, or harassment claims.

PASS THE STOP CSAM ACT (S.1829/H.R.3921):

Combat the sexual exploitation of children by empowering survivors to seek justice, strengthening CyberTipline reporting requirements, requiring transparency from online platforms, and protecting victims throughout federal court proceedings and the restitution process.

PASS THE SURVIVORS' RIGHTS RESTITUTION ACT (H.R.10397):

Creates a restitution fund in the judicial branch for survivors of sexual violence whose rights were violated by the federal government.

CLOSE STATE VOLUNTARY INTOXICATION LOOPHOLES:

Eliminate legal loopholes that prevent survivors from seeking justice when sexual assault occurs after voluntary alcohol or drug consumption, ensuring perpetrators are held accountable regardless of how a victim became intoxicated.
