

DEVOTIONAL SPEAKER CEDRIC N. BELCHER, SR.

Cedric N. Belcher, Sr. holds a BA in Theology from Oakwood University, a Master of Divinity, and a Doctor of Ministry from Andrews University Theological Seminary. He is the pastor of Grace Temple Seventh-day Adventist Church in Fort Worth, Texas; the author of a published memoir, “MORE: When Sufficient Is Not Enough”; and an entrepreneur. Dr. Belcher is married to Dr. Sonya Gray Belcher, and they have children: Gabriella Belcher, Angellina Belcher, and Cedric N. Belcher, Jr. (Ced). He loves people and is dedicated to making a difference in his community.

Dr. Belcher will share our three devotional talks this week. The titles of his talks for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings are:

The Heart of School Culture: What We Believe Shapes What We Build

The Habits of School Culture: Relationships Build the Culture Students Experience

The Heritage of School Culture: What We Build Today Shapes Who Students Become
