2022 Domain Road Pinot Gris Central Otago, NZ	92
We loved this wine at our wine tasting it will knock you for six! think of a wine that’s wrapped in an engima and this is it! it is full in the mouth with a silky texture giving way to a soft lemon curd, nashi pear, apricot and honey. This wine is perfectly balanced with layers of complexity leading to a pear and citrus finish. I don't think I have tried a Pinot Gris I liked as much. I hope you agree!

2023 Race Chablis Burgundy, France	98
If you are a true Chardonnay coinsurer then Chablis will be on your list! And this is a classic Chablis at its best. The wine maker uses absolutely no oak, showcasing the Chardonnay grape as the true hero in this bottle, it is clean with crushed apples and soft aromatic florals coming through in abundance. Enjoy.

RED

2020 Closerie de Malescas Haut Medoc
Cru Bourgeois Superieur
A beautiful round wine, with plums chocolate and cherries in abundance with soft tannins made this wine an easy wine to drink.

2021 Saint-Émilion Grand Cru Chateau Peymouton
France
St Emilion together with Pommerol and Chateau Neuf de Pape is one of the most famous wine producing areas in France and this wine lives up to expectations. A classic St Emilion supple round tannis with extraordinary black fruits and lightly toasted oak vanilla and gentle acidity!

2022 St Francois Xavier Gigondas
Southern Rhone, France
The palette is velvety, full bodied and robust with ripe cherries, mocha and herbaceous tones.

2023 Brouilly Pierreux, Chermette
Beaujoulais, France
One of my favourite grapes Gamay, and this wine is 100% Gamay. This wonderful wine is brimming with cherries, blackberry and strawberries with a great palette, finished with soft tannins and a smooth finish.

2021 Chateau Des Jacques Morgon
Beaujoulais, France
Not quite as light as a Brouilly, but still made from Gamay with red berries, cherry and chocolate on the palette, with soft tannins and a soft flavourful finish.

2020 Chateau Vieux Chevron Lalande de Pomerol
France
Pomerol what more can I say. Such a great consistent vineyard that pays homage to the area that is Pomerol. This wine is ruby red in colour with cherry and red currents and a firm palate. The merlot gives it great body and fruit and the touch of Cabernet Franc adds subtle tannins and structure. Savour every drop!

2022 Felton Road Bannockburn Pinot Noir
Central Otago, NZ
This pinot is a must have on any well regarded wine list and after sampling it myself I can see why. It is the Pinot of Pinot “It has all the classics of dark blossoms; rose and violet with a compote of dark fruits. The mid-palate is just screaming Felton Road. Black cherries and cream on the nose introduced cherry crumble on the palate with baked spices. Very harmonious for a wine so young, but a brooding undertow reveals the intrinsic power of the wine.

WHITE

2024 Sauvion Vouvray (Chenin Blanc)
Loire, France
This is a great example of a Chenin Blanc. Honeyed apple, pear and citrus are at the forefront of this wonderful drop, it is very well balanced and has a long refreshing finish.

2024 Clos Henri Sauvignon Blanc Otira Single Vineyard
Marlborough, NZ
If they cant do it there then they have to come here! The French are known for their wine making skills but undoubtedly Sauvignon Blanc does not grow anywhere quite like here in New Zealand. Subsequently this wine is the marriage made in Heaven! and oh boy does it show. Probably one of the most sophisticated Sauvignons on the market not only due to the skill of the wine marker but also its unique terries in the Marlborough region. Apple, pear and herbaceous overtones on the pallet with subtle gooseberry and well balanced acidity gives to a long finish. Enjoy!

Shiraz/ Syrah

2022 Sister Run Epiphany Shiraz
McLaren Vale, South Australia

15 | 60

This grape was invented for Australia, shiraz and Australia go hand in hand. The climate and the terroir are just a perfect match. This wine has been described as almost too drinkable, its a perfect balance between richness and tannins, its round full of ripe red fruits, chocolate, tobacco wit a long peppery finish.

2023 McManis Family Vineyard Petite Sirah
Northern California, USA

16 | 62

Our wine list just gets better and better and to be able to offer an American Sirah is a real treat, and oh my what a treat. Bolder than Captain Kirk and richer than Elon Musk this wine is full bodied and bursting with ripe red berries, a touch of tobacco, a dollop of chocolate and a long peppery finish, makes this wine enjoyable with or with out food.

2023 Giordana Primitivo
Puglia, Italian

18 | 74

We weren't sure where to place this wine as its grape varietals were similar to that of shiraz and Syrah than any other varietals hence why it is placed here. Deep red in colour with a black cherry, fig and vanilla on the nose, full bodied on the palette, smooth and bursting with red stone fruit.

2020 Elephant Hill Syrah
Hawke's Bay, NZ

86

If Australia and a shiraz are a match made in heaven then Gimblette Gravels Hawke's Bay and Syrah wouldn't be too far behind, although not as powerful as an Australian Shiraz, this wine could be potentially more sophisticated. Combining soft ripe berry fruit and delicate spice flavours, produce a medium bodied wine, a refined and silky finish, with soft tannins and a touch of oak leaves a generous mouth and texture. Enjoy on its own or with red meat.

2020 Langmeil Shiraz Valley Floor
Barossa, Australia

95

A beautiful Shiraz from Maclaren Vale one of my go to wine regions in Australia. This wine is crimson in colour with purple hues. and the nose has hints of sweet spice and chocolate. The wine is medium bodied and the palate shows hints of Mocha, chocolate mint and vanilla which flow through to a fruity, peppery spicy finish. Now imagine Nigella Lawson saying the description and it might add another layer to how wonderful this wine is.

2022 The Landing Syrah
Bay of Islands, NZ

23 | 98

A lovely expression of ripe blackberry fruit, harmoniously intermixed with savoury earthy notes and slight secondary dried herb elements. Embrace the local flavours of the beautiful Bay of Islands.

I tried this wine and I absolutely had to have it on our list. The problem is, in what category should it go. As it is most like a rose, this is where it ended up. The juice from the pinot noir is extracted but it has minimal skin contrast, as a result it is one of the lightest roses you will ever see. Intense aromas of nectarine, pears and spice and the palette is as full of peaches, nectarine and a touch of strawberries to boot. You are going to love it
