The Prayer of the Day

Father, we praise you, that through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things; you reveal your salvation in all the world through Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh; through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love: fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Welcome to ST MARK'S BASSENDEAN

Discovering and demonstrating Jesus' love in Bassendean and beyond.

15 June 2025

Welcome to St Mark's,

Today in the church calendar is 'Trinity Sunday.' A number of our Bible readings and songs will reflect on the wonderful truth that God is Trinity – 'tri-unity': three divine 'persons' in one divine 'being.'

1. It is true this is difficult to wrap our minds around – and that's okay! Us limited creatures shouldn't be surprised if we can't fully grasp the majesty of God. "You can't pour the ocean into a teacup" as one of my lecturers used to love saying. Rather than something to just make us scratch our heads, knowing that God is Trinity should lead us to humility, awe and wonder.
2. The early Christians didn't make this up wanting to be obscure and complicated! They realised it is the only valid conclusion we can come to as we reflect on who God has revealed himself to be. Jesus is clearly fully divine (he claimed to be so, and did things only God could do); yet he is also clearly not God the Father (who he prayed to, loved, and submitted to) or God the Spirit (who empowered him, and who he has sent to fill his disciples).
3. Even if we can't fully grasp it, every Christian is fully brought into relationship with the Triune God. As we come to Jesus, he brings us into relationship with God the Father, and pours on us his Spirit. He gave his life that we might be forgiven and accepted by the Father: "through him we both [Jew and Gentile] have access to the Father by one Spirit" (Eph 2:18). Jesus assures us, "if you know me, you know the Father" (John 8:19; 14:9). Exalted to God's right hand he has "poured out the Holy Spirit" on all who turn to him, his presence in us and with us (John 14:16-18). Most fundamentally, to be a Christian is to be graciously brought to personally know God: Father, Son and Spirit.

Acts 5:31–32 "God exalted [Jesus] to his own right hand as Prince and Savior that he might bring Israel to repentance and forgive their sins. We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

God the Trinity has acted to save us. Praise be to God, Father, Son and Spirit!

Mark

MISSION PROJECT UPDATE Information for your Prayers

Jireh Uganda
<https://jirehuganda.org>

Jireh Uganda

Jireh Uganda is a small, grassroots organisation where programs are planned and implemented at local village level. Though small in scale, Jireh Uganda programs are changing the lives of hundreds of impoverished Ugandan villagers and bringing glory to Jesus.

Destitute families are gifted a pregnant sow, a goat or three chickens, providing food and an income source. Some of the piglets, goat kids and chicks must be passed onto other needy families. A small maize farming program provided several families on the brink of starvation with a sustainable livelihood.

Small business cooperatives of three or four impoverished villagers are transformative. Examples include chapati making, selling legumes, milk or local produce. Vocational skills programs in tailoring, hairdressing and motor bike mechanics are bringing a hope and a future to many unemployed, unskilled villagers.

Please check out our website for more information or to make a tax deductible donation.
