Syrah/Shiraz

2021 Sister Run Epiphany Shiraz McLaren Vale, South Australia	14.5 59
--	---------

This grape was invented for Australia, shiraz and Australia go hand in hand. The climate and the terroir are just a perfect match. This wine has been described as almost too drinkable, its a perfect balance between richness and tannins, its round full of ripe red fruits, chocolate, tobacco wit a long peppery finish.

2020 McManis Family Vineyard Petite Sirah Northern California, USA	16 64
---	-------

Our wine list just gets better and better and to be able to offer an American Sirah is a real treat, and oh my what a treat. Bolder than Captain Kirk and richer than Elon Musk this wine is full bodied and bursting with ripe red berries, a touch of tobacco, a dollop of chocolate and a long peppery finish, makes this wine enjoyable with or with out food.

2022 Giordana Primitivo Puglia, Italian	18 70
--	-------

We weren't sure where to place this wine as its grape varietals were similar to that of shiraz and Syrah than any other varietals hence why it is placed here. Deep red in colour with a black cherry, fig and vanilla on the nose, full bodied on the palette, smooth and bursting with red stone fruit.

2020 Elephant Hill Syrah Hawke's Bay, NZ	21 86
---	-------

If Australia and a shiraz are a match made in heaven then Gimblette Gravels Hawke's Bay and Syrah wouldn't be too far behind, although not as powerful as an Australian Shiraz, this wine could be potentially more sophisticated. Combining soft ripe berry fruit and delicate spice flavours, produce a medium bodied wine, a refined and silky finish, with soft tannins and a touch of oak leaves a generous mouth and texture. Enjoy on its own or with red meat.

2021 Boulder Bay Syrah Moturoa Island, Bay of Islands, Nz	90
--	----

This Syrah is a stones throw away form its cousin the landing and the same terroir and climate makes them close cousins. the palette is brimming with black current, plums and liquorice. The tannins are finely balanced with a soft finish and harmonious well integrated oak.

2020 Langmeil Shiraz Valley Floor Maclaren Vale, Australia.	95
--	----

A beautiful Shiraz from Maclaren Vale one of my go to wine regions in Australia. This wine is crimson in colour with purple hues. and the nose has hints of sweet spice and chocolate. The wine is medium bodied and the palate shows hints of Mocha, chocolate mint and vanilla which flow through to a fruity, peppery spicy finish. Now imagine Nigella Lawson saying the description and it might add another layer to how wonderful this wine is.

2022 Stormwood Single estate Syrah Waiheke Island, Nz	98.5
--	------

This 2022 vintage is currently regarded as exceptional and possibly one of their best. Aromas of blackberry with hints of plums and spice, this is a medium bodied wine showing an abundance of sweet fruits and ripe fruity tannins.

2019 The Landing Syrah Bay of Islands, NZ	109
--	-----

A lovely expression of ripe blackberry fruit, harmoniously intermixed with savoury earthy notes and slight secondary dried herb elements. Embrace the local flavours of the beautiful Bay of Islands.

2022 Anchorage Reserve' Pinot Noir
Nelson, NZ

An absolute banger of a house pinot noir and great value for money. Very similar to pinot noirs found in Martinborough with dark cherry, cedar and spicey notes on the nose and the palette is smooth, full bodied with juicy dark berry flavours and lingering fine tannins. Pairs with food or on its own.

2022 Paddy Borthwick Paper Road Pinot Noir
Martinborough, NZ

Another classic from paddy, Martinborough and pinot noir what a great combination and with a great wine maker it makes it even better. This wine is medium bodied with soft velvety tannins, and a mix of tart and sweet cherry fruit with a good dollop of chocolate.

2023 Otiaki Pinot Noir
Central Otago

A typical Central Otago pinot noir with plum, dark berries, spices and ripe tannins, giving a long round finish.

2022 Saddleback Pinot Noir
Central Otago, NZ

Another wonderful expression of Central Otago Pinot Noir. Luscious and fruit forward, full of raspberries, blackcurrant, sweet spice and lovely soft tannins.

2023 Two Paddocks 'Picnic' Pinot Noir,
Central Otago, NZ

This is the All Blacks of the Pinot Noirs, knocking every team out of the water in any wine competition. Blackcurrant, mocha, char, spice and wild herb aromatics. An elegant and textural wine from our very own Sam Neil's vineyard so what is there not to love?

2022 Blue Lake Pinot Noir
Martinborough, NZ

This limited release Pinot Noir is truly outstanding, with only 13 cases available, after trying it, of course I had to buy all of them. This pinot shows what Martinborough can do like no other, with grapes harvested from the same terrortry as the highly acclaimed Dry River, this pinot is full bodied, full of ripe dark fruits, round with subtle tannins, you really will enjoy it.

2023 Clos Henri Waimaunga Single Estate Pinot Noir
Marlborough, New Zealand

A fantastic pinot, fruit driven, silky, refined and elegant. The palate is characterised by bold spice and dark fruits which give way to a beautifully refined long finish.

2024 Anchorage Rose

14|60

I was lucky enough to have one of the very first bottles shipped to me for tasting, and I am glad to say this rose didn’t disappoint. The palette is full with strawberries and ripe red berry fruits, with a back bone of acidity and super fine fruit tannins. Ending with a long creamy finish. Strawberries and cream anyone?

2022 Black Mountain Wines Rose
Hawke’s Bay, NZ

16|68

Ripe melon, pomegranate and citrus are on the forefront, its incredibly morish, approachable and well balanced, enjoy.

Waiheke Island, NZ

79

I absolutely love this rose from Waiheke island! This stunning wine produced from Merlot and Syrah, with a pale blush colour, bursting with raspberries, pomegrante and rhubard. sumptious on the pallette with a mouth watering delicious dry finish. Fantastic.

2023 Te Kano, Life Blanc de Noir
Central Otago, NZ

80

I tried this wine and I absolutely had to have it on our list. The problem is, in what category should it go. As it is most like a rose, this is where it ended up. The juice from the pinot noir is extracted but it has minimal skin contact, as a result it is one of the lightest roses you will ever see. Intense aromas of nectarine, pears and spice and the palette is as full of peaches, nectarine and a touch of strawberries to boot. You are going to love it.

2024 The Landing Rose
Bay of Islands, NZ

One of my favourite wines and definitely one of my favourite vineyards. Not only are they local but they make some of this country’s finest drops in a bottle. This Rosè is salmon pink in colour with strawberries and cream and a lovely long finish

19.5|76

2023 Anchorage Reserve
Nelson, NZ

14|60

Absolutely outstanding! and to be able to offer this as a house wine is a privilege. On a blind taste this is up there with some of the best Sauvignons that I have had and I have had a few! The pallet is bursting with gooseberries and passionfruit and backed up with vibrant citrus notes. Bright acidity with good minerals leads to a generous long finish. Enjoy!

2024 Misty Cove Sauvignon Blanc

15|62

This Classic Sauv brings a real treat to the mouth, swirling notes of tropical fruits and citrus zest. It delivers a really vibrant and fresh format leaving a crisp, clean finish after every sip. Sounds like fun!

2025 Paddy Borthwick
Martinborough, NZ

15.5|67

Coming across this vineyard was a real treat. Paddy makes some outstanding wines so to have a great winemaker with one of New Zealand’s greatest wine producing areas, well what a mix. Love Martinborough wines and I love this Sav. This wine is packed with flavour with a core of ripe nectarines, spiced stone fruit and a hint of dark herb on the nose. What more can i say. Try It!

2023 Peregrine Sauvignon Blanc
Central Otago, NZ

17|72

Fresh, bright and crisp with hints of lime, lemongrass and gooseberries which are popping out of this wine like corks out of Champagne bottles on New Year's Eve.

2022 Clos Henri Sauvignon Blanc Otira Single Vineyard
Marlborough, NZ

87

If they can’t do it over there then they have to come here! The French are known for their wine making skills but undoubtedly Sauvignon Blanc does not grow anywhere quite like here in New Zealand. Subsequently this wine is the marriage made in Heaven! And oh boy does it show. Probably one of the most sophisticated Sauvignons on the market not only due to the skill of the wine maker but also its unique terriers in the Marlborough region. Apple, pear and herbaceous overtones on the pallet with subtle gooseberry and well balanced acidity gives to a long finish. Enjoy!
