

Legacy Gifts – Naming the League in your Will

Naming the League of Women Voters of New Jersey as a beneficiary in your will costs nothing today and allows you to make a deep and meaningful impact for years to come. A legacy gift—no matter the size—helps to ensure that future generations will continue to have access to trusted voter information, nonpartisan advocacy, and a strong voice defending the freedom to vote.

If you have not yet made your will, or are in the process of updating your will, we hope you will consider including the League in your estate plans. Your legacy is more than a gift. It is a lasting investment in democracy.

If you are working with an estate planner or an attorney and would like language to include in your will or trust, please see the examples below.*

For a bequest to the League of Women Voters of New Jersey, in support of our crucial lobbying efforts:

"I give to the League of Women Voters of New Jersey (EIN: 22-1153223) located at 204 West State Street, Trenton, NJ 08608, or its successor thereto, _____ [written amount or percentage of the estate or description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose."

For a bequest to the League of Women Voters of New Jersey Education Fund, in support of our voter education efforts:

"I give to the League of Women Voters of New Jersey Education Fund (EIN: 22-2407784), a nonprofit currently located at 204 West State Street, Trenton, NJ 08608, or its successor thereto, _____ [specific written dollar amount or percentage of the estate or description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose."

This language is not meant as a substitute for planning with an estate lawyer or other financial advisor.*

If you have already included the League in your will, please take a moment to email Jennifer Oakes, Development Manager, at joakes@lwvnj.org to let us know about your future gift. This will ensure your donation is used as you intended, and give us the opportunity to recognize your commitment to democracy and thank you personally for your donation.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please don't hesitate to reach out. In the meantime, thank you for considering a gift to League of Women Voters of New Jersey. We would be honored to be a part of your legacy.
