

ROBERTO MONTERO

MANAGER | CREATIVE SERVICES & DIGITAL SOLUTIONS
& TRIAL TECHNOLOGY CONSULTANT

ABOUT

Roberto Montero serves as Manager of Creative Services and Digital Solutions at OPVEON and also works as a Trial Technology Consultant, supporting attorneys with courtroom presentation and technology execution. In his dual role, he bridges creative production and technical strategy, ensuring both client-facing materials and in-court presentations meet the highest professional standards.

Roberto grew up in New Jersey and is of Cuban descent. He holds a bachelor's degree in Business Management from Palm Beach Atlantic University, as well as a degree in Computer Electronics. Bilingual in English and Spanish, he is currently expanding his language skills by studying French.

With more than a decade of experience in the print industry, Roberto began his career as a graphic designer before advancing into leadership roles managing large commercial print operations. His background in design, production workflow, and digital solutions strengthens efficiencies across graphic development, marketing initiatives, and client deliverables.

Outside of work, Roberto and his wife, Jennette, enjoy supporting their three children in their activities. He continues to pursue his passion for craftsmanship through laser etching and woodworking.
