

PRGT December Project Update

Under the current schedule, no construction activities are planned for this month.

Seasonal environmental field studies, wildlife habitat surveys, engineering field programs, aerial overviews, and site visits have now wrapped up for the year.

PRGT teams are focused on planning and preparations for the 2026 construction season.