

PRGT Monthly Update: March 2026

In March, the PRGT Project expects to conduct some additional marine studies, along with site visits in the eastern section of the Project route and inspections along the right-of-way in Nisga'a Lands. These activities support planning and permitting efforts, as well as overall compliance.