

Monthly Update: April 2026

Over the past month, the PRGT Project continued field activities along the route. This included additional marine studies and site visits, as well as maintenance work at Sga Sgin'ist Lodge near Nass Camp on Nisga'a Lands.

Looking ahead, the team is preparing for environmental and geotechnical surveys planned for later this summer and fall. These activities will help support construction planning and permitting efforts.