Show Information

The Great Lakes Boating Festival is a long-standing tradition in southeast Michigan at the prestigious Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The show is the largest spring in-water show in the region featuring boats up to 80 feet.

Nearly 4,000 guests attend the event over the two-day show.

Attendee demographics mirror the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club membership: Affluent adults, ages 35-45, with a household income above $250,000, that are seeking an active lifestyle for their families.
