About the Designer

Hannes & Fritz is the design studio of Johannes Breuer & Fritz Gräber. With Johannes in Stuttgart and Fritz in Zurich, they develop each project through a mix of individual and mutual work across cities. Both have a very similar skillset and common interests, but they each bring their own unique perspective to their collaborative projects; Johannes' tendency to be rather linear and emblematic, and Fritz's more dynamic and expressive design language. Merged together, the results are more interesting than what each designer could have achieved individually.
