Material
ADC12 & Galvanised iron sheet & borosilicate glass

Production process
The base is die-cast ADC12 aluminium. The upright and lid components are made from laser cut galvanised iron sheets. The glass tube is made from borosilicate glass and can withstand high temperatures. OBVS! If the glass breaks, it will break in large sharp shards. It will not shatter like safety glass would. Borosilicate glass must be used in this application to withstand the high temperatures caused by the candle.
