

360 BURNHAM WINDSOR CHAIR

By Matthew Hilton

Burnham is a Windsor chair named after a neighbouring village of High Wycombe in Buckinghamshire, where the Windsor chair originated. The chair uses traditional Windsor chair-making techniques in order to further the story, the evolution of the English Windsor chair. The contrast of the black walnut seat on this otherwise ash chair, attractively highlights the wedge tenon detail where the leg intersects with the top of the seat.

MATERIALS

TIMBER

Solid European ash with a solid American black walnut seat with a Danish oil, white oil, or black oil finish.

NOTES

Only one oil option may be chosen for the chair.

SIZE

W73 × D71 × H76.5 cm, seat height 39cm
W28 3/4 × D27 7/8 × H30 1/8 ", seat height 15 1/3"