Sori Tray, Big - Silver Travertine

Product Description

Inspired by the quiet harmony of layered architectural forms, Sori is designed to bring a sense of calm and balance into the interior. Its sculptural silhouette unfolds in generous, rhythmic levels, where light and shadow move gently across the stepped surface, creating depth, stillness, and a serene architectural presence. Elevated on a refined pedestal base, the substantial stone form feels both grounded and effortless, balancing strength with quiet elegance.

Crafted in refined Silver Travertine from the heart of Iran, Sori celebrates the timeless beauty of natural stone through subtle tonal variations, organic markings, and a tactile matte texture shaped patiently by nature over centuries. The muted silver-grey hues enhance the tranquil expression of the piece, allowing the material to reveal its quiet depth and authenticity.

Balancing geometric precision with organic softness, Sori exists between function and sculpture, inspired by the understated harmony of traditional Japanese interiors. With its generous surface, it lends itself naturally to serving, displaying a considered collection of meaningful objects, or simply being appreciated in its pure form -- inviting a slower rhythm of living where everyday rituals become moments of presence, simplicity, and stillness.

Designer Description

Tommy Hyldahl and Kristian Sofus Hansen intertwine their distinct sensibilities to create designs where storytelling, materiality, and timeless form meet in quiet harmony.

With a background in fashion, Tommy brings an intuitive eye for trends, colors, and textures. His process is one of layering histories, blending details and references from past design periods and reimagining them into something fresh and contemporary. Each collection unfolds as a narrative, evolving from concept to creation, with every element contributing to a greater story.

Kristian, who has lived and studied in Japan, seeks to unite Japanese aesthetics with Danish design, creating a characteristic twist on simplicity itself. His work is defined by the search for subtle, original details that elevate each piece with a unique signature. Drawing inspiration from art and sculpture, his creative process unfolds in new and exciting ways, always striving to craft designs that are both functional and timeless.

Together, they craft design that transcends time, poetic yet practical, expressive yet enduring.

Maintenance Guide Description

Marble is a natural stone whose beauty lies in its luminous surface and subtle variations. To preserve its elegance, clean regularly with a soft, damp cloth and mild, pH-neutral soap, then dry thoroughly to prevent water spots.

Because marble is porous, spills should be wiped immediately especially acidic liquids like wine, coffee, or citrus, which can stain or etch the surface. Avoid abrasive pads, harsh chemicals, or alkaline cleaners that may damage the polish or leave marks.

Protect the stone with coasters, placemats, or felt pads under objects, and avoid placing hot items directly on the surface. For long-term care, professional sealing is recommended to enhance resistance to stains while retaining the natural clarity of the marble.

With mindful handling, marble will maintain its timeless purity and elegance, aging gracefully with use.
