ABOUT THE DRIVER

Travis brings nearly 14 years of commercial driving experience to TVS, and his professionalism, reliability, and strong commitment to safety continue to elevate our entire team. Throughout his career, he has proven to be someone we can depend on in any situation, whether responding to last-minute operational needs, taking on challenging routes, or supporting coworkers without hesitation. His willingness to step in wherever needed makes him an essential asset to our operation. Travis also plays an important role in training new employees. He provides clear, practical guidance while reinforcing safe-driving practices, TDG requirements, and proper fuel-delivery procedures. His patience and ability to communicate effectively help new drivers build confidence and develop the skills they need to succeed. His positive attitude is consistently noted by both coworkers and customers. Even during high-pressure periods or demanding weather conditions, Travis remains calm, professional, and focused on safety. His strong judgment, steady approach, and pride in his work reflect the values our industry depends on: commitment, integrity, and a dedication to doing the job right.

Congratulations Travis!
