ANDRE ROY

ABOUT THE DRIVER

Andre Roy has been with Day & Ross for over 40 years. He became an owner operator after a career in the Royal Canadian Air Force as an avionics technician. Andre joined at Day & Ross as a dock worker and started stepping into the driver's seat when needed. He is a great example for many drivers on how to do the job safely with an impeccable record of 38 years of safe driving under his belt. Andre received his 3 Million Miles award a few years ago and is on track for 4 Million Miles next year. Always willing to lend a helping hand, Andre shares his great wealth of knowledge with the operations team. Andre is a motorcycle enthusiast who loves the outdoors, camping, fishing and spending quality time at the cottage.

Congratulations Andre!
