LEGAL CLAIMS

All contracts entered with Broadback Outfitting are deemed to have originated in the Province of Québec, Canada. Any litigation that may result must be addressed to the appropriate Québec Court.

LIABILITY

Broadback Outfitting and/or its agents do not assume responsibility nor shall be liable for any injury, loss, or damage of any nature whatsoever, caused or occasioned by neglect, default, or any act of commission and/or omission, whether negligent or not of any person, company, or carrier, nor of their respective representatives, servants and/or employees. In the event of an uncontrollable delay, Broadback Outfitting and/or its agents cannot be held responsible for shortened holiday time, missed connections, extra expenses for food and/or lodging or other damages or loss which may result. If your arrival at camp is delayed due to uncontrollable circumstances or to force majeure, the full rate will apply. If you are delayed in leaving the camp due to uncontrollable circumstances, there will be no extra charge. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or the security of our guests or for any reason whatever to terminate, amend and/or cancel confirmed reservations for any period, or portions thereof, due to strikes, national emergencies, weather or similar situations normally referred to as acts of God, or any situation which is believed to be in the best interest of the guests of Broadback Outfitting, such action will be taken without penalty to Broadback Outfitting, companies, corporations or persons participating in this operation. Should illness, safety or personal reasons necessitate the evacuation of one or more guests, the evacuation expenses will be paid by the guest(s) involved.
