Subject: [UPDATE] Short Term Rentals in San Diego's Election

To: <150miles@gmail.com>

Figuring out where candidates stand on the issue of STRs can be difficult, so we've done it for you

As many of you know we continue to concentrate our efforts on the upcoming elections as we feel this is the best path to a reasonable and common sense based short term rental ordinance in San Diego. In an effort to keep everyone updated, we are emailing our thoughts on the upcoming March elections for the City of San Diego.

These thoughts are based on direct conversations with some of the candidates, their interviews with the news media, and their endorsements by other groups involved either directly or indirectly in the discussion of short term rentals.

Our guideposts are based on the following:

- position (if it can be directly ascertained)
- willingness to consider other points of view and a commitment to balance and reasonable solutions
- thoughts on private property rights and ability to work with others on finding resolution

In some cases, we make recommendations for candidates that are less than ideal, but better than the alternatives of who they are running against. We felt it appropriate to send you these thoughts since some candidates are directly advocating for a ban if elected.

We all know how much an election can impact our cause and we hope you will find this guide useful as you vote.

Mayor - Scott Sherman and Todd Gloria

City Attorney - Mara Elliott

District 1 - Will Moore

District 3 - Adrian Kwiatkowski and Stephen Whitburn

District 5 - Joe Leventhal

District 7 - Raul Campillo and Noli Zosa

District 9 - Sean Elo and Kelvin Barrios

This list does not reflect an official endorsement by Share San Diego, but rather advice to our members as to which candidates deserve further consideration.
