SHELENE HUEY-BOOKER

NEGRO NATIONAL ANTHEM

Born into a musically infused family, Shelene lives a life combining her passions of music, mentorship and love to impact the community at large.

Shelene Huey- Booker, a California native, was born into a family filled with musical gifts and founded in love. She takes pleasure in following her fathers's footsteps. She is very committed to doing the will of her heavenly father and reaching the world starting with her community. She and her husband are proud founders of non-profit organization YUPP, Youth Utilizing Power and Praise where they develop programming and networking for those between the ages of 6-25 in fine arts, public speaking, performing arts and sports. They are on a mission to create hope and love for the youth of their community relentlessly.

Her musical gifts have definitely made room for her. She has been blessed to grace the stage with such noted gospel singers Rance Allen, Donnie McClurkin, Tramaine Hawkins, Crystal Rucker, The Clark Sisters, The Crabb family just to name a few. She has also been fortunate to be invited to Mayor's events in her community, share the stage of the world renowned chancery, the provost of Santa Clara University and more.

Her musical influences include: Micah Stampley, Jason Upton, her father, Pastor Claudell Huey, Donnie McClurkin, Jeremy Camp, Nicole C. Mullen, Steve Lawrence, and Iris Stevenson. These influences have allowed her to develop a vocal style that is said to be eclectic. She can sing anywhere from traditional gospel to opera to neo-soul.

Her single and title of upcoming project , "You satisfy" was written by one of her students who has grown from severely shy to a worship leader at C3 Silicon Valley. The project is a variety of musical styles, but reflects her heart for prophetic worship.

MARCUS WASHINGTON

EMCEE

Marcus Washington anchors "Today In The Bay" and "NBC Bay Area News at 11" alongside Laura Garcia.

Marcus has been acknowledged by outlets like the Baltimore Sun and the Washington Post for his reporting. He is also flattered (and amused!) to be named one of "Nashville's 25 Most Beautiful People" (per Lifestyles Magazine in 2011) and number fourteen among "The 50 Hottest Anchors in the World" (according to BuzzFeed.com in 2017).

Marcus is also a member of The National Association of Black Journalists, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated, and the Church of Christ.

He is excited to explore the Bay Area and all the great treasures—especially the food, music, and community—it has to offer. So, don't hesitate to say hello if you see Marcus out—and follow him on social media for news updates and chronicles of his adventures.

FAITH EVANS

HEADLINER

Faith Renée Evans is a multi-platinum Grammy Award winning recording artist, songwriter, arranger and record producer. Faith is also a New York Times best-selling author, an entrepreneur, a TV executive producer and most importantly – a mother. With so many hats to be worn, it is undeniable that Faith has a little something for everyone. Through what has been an equally rewarding and trying career, ask her how she's come this far and she'll simply reply, "FAITH."

With a music career spanning over two decades, Faith has released eight studio albums, with over 18 million albums sold and spawning over 30 singles. Faith has also performed on 20+ soundtracks and a host of guest appearances during her career. Faith Evans is a seven-time Grammy nominee; winning "Best Rap Performance by a Duo or Group" in 1998 for "I'll Be Missing You," an homage to her late husband and hip-hop legend Notorious B.I.G.

Faith has three Platinum-certified albums under her belt, including: "Faith" (1995), "Keep The Faith" (1998) and "Faithfully" (2000); the Gold-certified "The First Lady" (2005), and the holiday staple, "A Faithful Christmas" (2005). In 2008, Faith penned her New York Times Best Selling Book, "Keep the Faith: A Memoir" with Aliya King, which won the 2009 African American Literary Award in the "Best Biography/Memoir" category. The memoir is currently available in hardback, paperback and in e-book format at most major retailers. In 2010, Faith released her first independent album through her music imprint Prolific Music Group and El Music, titled "Something About Faith". The lead single "Gone Already" was nominated for "Best Female R&B Vocal Performance" for the 2011 Grammy Awards. In August 2012, Faith co-created, executive produced and starred in an original reality series, "R&B Divas", which became cable network TV One's most watched original premiere in the history of the network and later released a compilation album of the same name. The "R&B Divas" album earned Faith her seventh Grammy nomination for "Best R&B Album" for the 2014 Grammy Awards.

In November 2014, Faith released her eighth studio album, "Incomparable", on Prolific Music Group, with distribution through BMG Chrysalis. "Incomparable" reached number 17 on Billboard's Independent Albums chart and number 27 on Billboard's Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums chart. "Incomparable" includes the lead single "I Deserve It" featuring Missy Elliott and Sharaya J and the follow up second single "Make Love", featuring Keke Wyatt, is currently climbing up the Urban AC radio airplay charts. The album also includes guest features from Problem, B. Slade & Karen Clark-Sheard and production by Mike City, Chucky Thompson, MyGuyMars and Brian Morgan.

In 2016, Faith was one of the featured performers on the acclaimed "Bad Boy Family Reunion Tour," playing to thousands of fans in 19 cities and two countries.

In 2017, Faith released "The King & I", her long-awaited duets album with The Notorious B.I.G. on Prolific Music Group & Rhino Records. The first two singles, "NYC" featuring Jadakiss and "When We Party" featuring Snoop Dogg, premiered on February 3. The King & I also includes guest appearances by Busta Rhymes, Jadakiss, Lil' Cease, Lil' Kim, Sheek Louch, and Styles P and production by DJ Premier, Just Blaze, Salaam Remi, Stevie J, and Chucky Thompson.

"I remember telling Ms. Wallace years ago that one day it would be really dope if I could do something similar to Natalie & Nat King Cole's Unforgettable," says Evans. "Knowing the love that B.I.G. had for Tyanna & Ceejay, I feel it's my duty to uphold & extend his legacy, especially his musical contributions. This project is my creative reflection of the love we had & the bond we will always have. I'm elated to share this musical journey with our fans!"

DJ D SHARP

/adjective/ 1. HAS AN EDGE. 2. ABLE TO CUT.

DJ D Sharp was not born with an equal edge. His melodic congruence is boosted by his Oakland influence. The spin of his turntables rips dance floors and pushes all of the right angles. From Rome to Rio... From Manila to Madrid... There is no border that has not been blazed by the wunderkind. Combining subtle melodic shifts, synthesized with a devastating touch, D Sharp bleeds a vast array of musical genres with a fluidity and fluency that is unrivaled. His prestigious and robust client list only cements his rhythmic wrath on the wheels of steel. This veritable cornucopia includes Fortune 500 companies, foreign dignitaries, and the hottest venues in the world. Rocking the social networking halls of Facebook. Blowing the roof off of the shimmering, iridescent towers in Vegas. Even tickling the vinyl for our esteemed Commander in Chief, Barack Obama. Now the official DJ of the reigning WORLD CHAMPION GOLDEN STATE WARRIORS, DJ D Sharp raises the decibel levels of the 20,000 strong at the now infamous Oracle Arena. So as you see... There is no venue too quaint nor arena too grand that this DJ cannot mold and bend to his skillful hands. If music is the elixir for the soul, then D Sharp is the instrument to help you move your bones. There is no mob he cannot cut. No crowd he cannot pierce. Because, while all men may be created equal... DJ D Sharp reminds us that this is not the case for all DJs.

Seneca Family of Agencies provides education, mental health, and permanency services to children and families during the most difficult times of their lives. Employees at Seneca have the opportunity to give back and support their communities through the work we do every day. From mentoring, to leading recreational activities, to connecting families to community resources, we provide our clients with unconditional care.

"I love what I do because every day I am able to work with the most competent, organized, loving and dedicated people I have ever met.

The amazing spirit of the people I work with is what drives us all to collaborate and learn about ourselves and the very difficult work we do. It also goes without saying that I love working with our kiddos – they are some of the most inspiring and resilient humans, and their small progresses, as well as my privilege at being a small part of their lives, makes it all worth it."
