The Epiphany of the Lord

Matthew 2:1-12

When I was 22, I went on a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year of 2000. I was traveling light with just a backpack, one blue shirt and black pants, little money, and no Italian. I had a few close friends and one goal: to reach the Eternal City. Despite the challenges and deprivations, I felt alive in a way I had never known before.

When do you feel most alive? I'd wager it's not when you're most comfortable or surrounded by stuff. Rather, it's when your life is aimed at something great; when you're on a meaningful and challenging journey with good friends.

That's the image the Magi give us in today's Gospel. They set out from the East not with certainty, but with hope. They study the signs, discipline their attention, and journey together, offering the best they have when they find the newborn King.

The Church gives us their story at the start of the year to reawaken something in us. We are not meant to drift. We're meant to journey as pilgrims. The Jubilee Year of 2025 may have ended, but our pilgrimage has not. Like the magi, the closer we get to Christ, the more alive we become.

STEWARDSHIP

The story of the Wise Men bringing gifts to Jesus, the newborn King, is a great one, isn't it? They had a great big star in the sky to lead the way. I am no Boy Scout, so I am not sure how well I would do following a star like that. But the important point here is that God led them to the manger. The manger was a place that unless God specifically showed you this was where the Christ Child was born you wouldn't have believed it. You would have passed on by.

In our lives, there are no big stars in the sky leading us where we need to go. It isn't so easy sometimes discerning where God is leading us. We may seek to use our gifts wisely, but in what manner and to what end is not always clear.

This is where prayer can make a huge difference. If we seek to cultivate a prayer life where we are mindful of the presence of God throughout our day, then the call is easier to discern. We can help the process by intentionally offering to God in the morning the entirety of the day to come: all our actions, all our time, and all our decisions. In the evening, we can examine the past hours of the day and reflect on when we responded well to Christ's call and when we fell short. Then we resolve to begin again tomorrow, inviting Christ to be with us every step of the way. God may not offer a star in the sky to lead us, but if we invite us on our journey each day, the path will be much clearer.

Year End Giving is upon us.

Beyond cash or check are a number of tax-saving ways to give such as a RMD distribution if over 70 ½. Appreciated Stock Distribution, Donor Advised Fund, Grain/Other Commodity Transfer, Property Transfer. Please consider contributing to: St. Isidore Church for operating expenses, to the Parish Center for debt reduction, to the Endowment Fund where only the earnings are used to support the parish. Please remember St. Isidore Parish when doing your estate planning. Contact Gina at the parish office with any questions 402-564-8993.

Prayer inspired by Carlo Acutis
now Saint Carlo Acutis.

Lord Jesus Today I give you everything I am. I consecrate this day and every moment of my life to you. I offer you my mind, my thoughts, my words and my actions. Make me an instrument of your peace and use my hands to bring comfort to those who suffer. Take my sorrows and unite them to yours for the salvation of souls. I give you my family, my friends and those I love most. Bless our home, deliver us from all evil and make faith, hope and love reign in our home. Jesus, I trust in you do with me what You want because I know that your plans are better than mine. Amen

HAVE A HAPPY & BLESSED NEW YEAR!
