

Leadership Development Award (Doris Badir) Application Form

The application must include the following and be submitted in one PDF file:

Please Print or Type Information

1. Name of applicant: _____

2. Address: _____

3. Phone number: _____

4. Email address: _____

5. A one-page resume.

6. Briefly describe the undergraduate or graduate human ecology/home economics* program you are currently enrolled in full time, the year in the program, and the institution where you are currently studying and its location. (200 words maximum)

7. Describe your demonstrated leadership activities in the community and/ or human ecology/home economics profession. Submission should provide evidence of how you have exhibited the qualities of leadership through some or all of the following: (500 words maximum)

- a. Active and impactful participation in human ecology associations, societies, clubs, or other professional or student bodies related to human ecology.
- b. Active and impactful participation in events and outreach activities that enrich the human ecology student experience, promote the profession, and/or advance Canadians' understanding of the role of human ecologists in society.
- c. Extra-curricular activities such as competitions, conferences, and other opportunities, such as coaching or mentoring.
- d. Behaviour as a role model within the human ecology student community.
- e. Active and impactful participation in their community through volunteerism.
- f. Anticipated benefits of receiving this award.

8. One reference letter provided by a person who is familiar with your leadership abilities and activities. The letter should be signed by the person writing it and include contact information for the referee (e.g., telephone number, email address).

*Human ecology/home economics is an evolving field of study, focusing on individuals and families in their near environment. It includes, but is not limited to: family studies, consumer sciences, financial and resource management, consumerism, food science, human nutrition, human sexuality, human development, textiles, clothing and material culture, and housing design and interiors

I understand that I will be provided with logos that I will use, and that credit must be given to the “Canadian Home Economics Foundation” for the funds received.

I have read and understood the general and award specific terms of reference and conditions.

I have read, understood and agree to the Limitations of Liability. (www.chef-fcef.ca/grants/index.htm)

By signing this document, I attest to being:

- a full-time student.
- a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada
- at the award application deadline, enrolled full-time, as defined by your university, in good standing and in a human ecology* program
- a student who has completed at least two years of undergraduate studies at a Canadian academic institution
- a student who has not previously received the Leadership Development – Doris Badir Award

Signature of Applicant: _____

Date: _____

Send application by February 28, 11:59 p.m. Mountain Time: slusarmg@icloud.com